A Safe Environment

The How To Talk To Men Advanced is a 3-day seminar designed to open your heart. It will restore your ability to immerse yourself in love. This course provides a safe environment to release the anger and anxiety that have blocked your link to men. With greater awareness you will be able to discover your defence mechanisms and see how you unconsciously provoke men. Then you will learn exciting new ways to get what you want with men.

Our trainers provide a compassionate environment to examine your unconscious habits. Their respect for you, combined with laser-accurate feedback, will enable you to dissolve your social mask, revealing the caldron of disappointment and frustration that has poisoned your connections. You will experience a relief from pent-up emotion. And you will open up to warmth and kindness from the other women who have the courage to take this journey with you.

How To Talk to Men Advanced

When a woman falls in love she feels on top of the world. Waves of happiness fill her body and mind. We all know how it feels to love another person so deeply. We always long to find our way back to that feeling.

But when love fails, the pain is devastating. Few women ever find their way back to the natural high that accompanies true love.

Not for the Faint-Hearted

This advanced version of the How to Talk to Men provides an unflinching look at the sexes. Our conversations will be direct and honest, so you should only attend if you are ready to give up unrealistic expectations so that you can deal with life as it is.

This course will give you the perceptual tools you need to get what you truly desire. Take this chance to create positive change in your life. It will cost you three days and 250€ to breathe new life into your connections with men. Call if you are curious.
