True happiness is having one's passion as a profession

Life is an exciting adventure for those who earn a living doing what they love. Our team will assist you to design and build a career and lifestyle that makes you feel vibrant and alive.

Successful people have a superior life design. They know what they want and they have a clear map that will take them where they want to go.

Few people achieve the success they desire. They don't plan to fail. They just fail to plan. So they lack clear direction. Without a plan that fits, too many people work too hard at the wrong thing. They labor at jobs to produce money for other people. As they drift through life, they grow older and deeper in debt.

Fortunately you can learn to discover your passion and to set goals that will bring about the life you desire. Goal setting alone isn't enough. In this course you will write out a design for your career and lifestyle based on feedback that let's you know what activities make you feel more alive.

Too many people start a restaurant or launch a business based on a good idea—only to discover that the reality is not as exciting as the dream. Time & Money helps you sort through your notions so you can discern which goals actually fit your nature and disposition.

Penetrating dialogue will awaken you innate curiosity. As you discover what truly lights you up, you will be able to create a life design that will open your heart and mind. By transforming the things you most enjoy into products and services for other people, you will be able to take your first steps to achieving the happiness and freedom you desire.

As you discover exciting activities that turn on your engines, you will remember what you always wanted to be and what you want to do with your life.

By the end of the weekend, you will know the specific actions you need to shift you into the life you were meant to live. Most people talk about what they will do. This is a course for people who intend to really do the things they talk about.
